UED rewards partner language schools

Published on 11/12/19

Turkish agency association UED has held its seventh annual UED Agency Awards of Turkey, recognising the service of partner language schools.

The awards, voted for by executives of UED's member agencies, covered 17 categories this year, and were presented during the UED Summit 2019 at the Bellis Delux Hotel & Convention Center in Cappadocia recently.

Gokhan Islamoglu, Coordinator of UED, said, "UED, joining together the prominent organisations in the business, established the UED Agency Awards of Turkey for the very first time in 2013. The awards were established in order to determine and reward the language schools who give the best service to Turkish students and study abroad agencies."

ILSC Education collected two English Language School of the Year awards for Canada and Australia, while ELS was recognised in the US; King's Education won the UK category; ESE European School of English was chosen for Malta; and Emerald Cultural Institute collected the Ireland category.

EC English won the Chain Language School of the Year category, while London School of English collected the new Executive Programme Provider award, and ILAC International Language Academy of Canada (ILAC) went home with a Lifelong Success award.

For other languages, there were wins for Humboldt-Institut (German); French in Normandy (French); Dilit IH Rome (Italian); and Don Quijote (Spanish).

In the summer school categories, there were awards for Studio Cambridge (English), Alpadia (German), Azurlingua (French) and Linguaviva (Italian).

Established in 2001, UED currently comprises of more than 35 member agencies and is a member of the global Federation of Education and Language Consultant Associations (FELCA).
